Daniel 1: 1-21

This true story is about:
Pleasing God by saying 'NO'
to what is wrong

Daniel and his three friends, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, were prisoners in Babylon. King Nebuchadnezzar was good to them and chose them to be trained in a special school. There, they had to learn a new language. They were given new names. They were also expected to eat the king's special food.

Who was the king of Babylon?

Daniel decided, even though he was in a strange country, that he would keep himself from all that was wrong. He wanted to please the Lord.

Daniel chose not to eat the king's food because it had been first offered to false gods. Instead, for ten days he ate just vegetables and drank water, to test whether he would look any different from those who ate the king's food. At the end, he looked much better!

God blessed Daniel and his friends for putting Him first in their lives. By the time they finished their special training, they were ten times wiser than anyone else!

Read

Daniel 2: 48, 49 & 3: 1-30

This true story is about: Daniel's friends saying 'NO' to what is wrong

One day Nebuchadnezzar made a very big statue, or idol, of gold. He ordered all his important rulers including Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego to come to a special service. (These were the new names given to Daniel's three friends.)

Underline what the idol was made of.

They were all told that as soon as they heard the music of the royal orchestra, they were to bow down and worship the idol. If they did not, they would be thrown into a fiery furnace!

Daniel's three friends knew it was wrong to worship idols, so when everyone else bowed down, they stood up straight! When the king heard, he was very angry and told them they must worship the idol or be thrown into the fiery furnace. They said,

"If we are thrown into the furnace our God whom we serve is able to save us."

The king ordered them to be thrown into the furnace. After Daniel's three friends were thrown into the furnace, King Nebuchadnezzar looked into the fire. He was very surprised to see four men, unhurt, walking in the fire! Wonderfully, God was with His three servants, protecting them! When the king called them out, their clothes were not burnt and they did not even smell of smoke!

God always blesses those who put Him first, and who obey His Word and trust in Him.

Lesson No. 3 - Daniel - The open windows

Daniel 6: 1-16

*This true story is about:
Daniel's honesty and how he prayed to God*

Please put your name here

Daniel had worked so well for the new King Darius, that the king decided to put him in charge of everything. Some of the other governors did not like this and tried to find something wrong with Daniel's work. But they could not find one mistake because Daniel was so honest and careful in everything he did!

Who was the new king?

If we love the Lord, like Daniel, we should try to please Him by doing our best and being honest at all times.

These wicked governors knew that Daniel often talked to God in prayer, asking God to help him. So they decided to set a trap. They got the king to agree to a new law which said that for 30 days, no one was to pray to anyone except the king.

When Daniel heard this he trusted God to protect him. For Daniel, praying to God was most important, and nothing would stop him!

Three times a day, Daniel went to his room and knelt down in front of his open windows and prayed to God in Heaven.

The wicked governors saw him praying and went and told the king. He was very upset and did his best to find some way to rescue Daniel. But it was no good. The law had been made, and could not be changed! Daniel would have to be thrown to the lions!

Daniel 6: 17-28

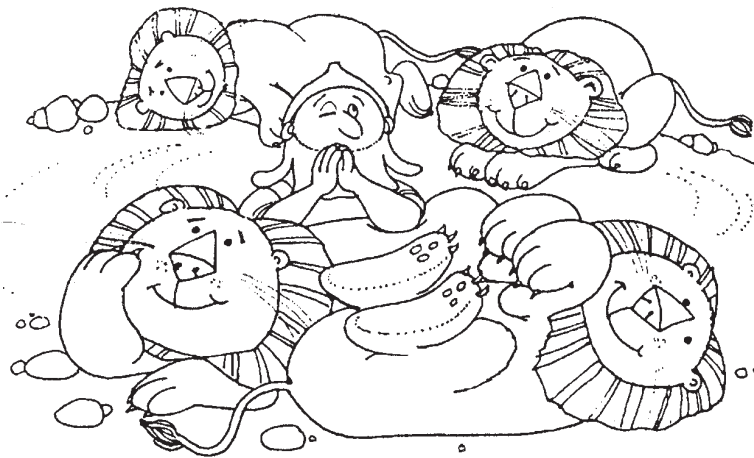

*This true story is about:
Trusting God at all times*

Please put your name here

Before Daniel was put into the lions' den, the king had said to him, "Your God who you serve continually, He will save you." The king then returned to the palace. He didn't eat anything, or find it easy to sleep that night.

Very early, the next morning, the king hurried to the lions' den. He called out to Daniel to ask him if his God had been able to save him from the lions.

Daniel replied, saying that his God had sent an angel to shut the lions' mouths so that they would not harm him. He told the king that God had done this because he had not done anything wrong.

The king was overjoyed to see Daniel. He then ordered the governors to be thrown to the lions. They were all killed at once.

Remember, God will save us from our sins if we trust the Lord Jesus, who died for us on the cross.
