One day when the boy was older, he became very sick, so sick that he died. His mother found Elisha and he came back to the house.

First, Elisha prayed for the boy and then breathed into his body. The boy started to come alive again. He sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

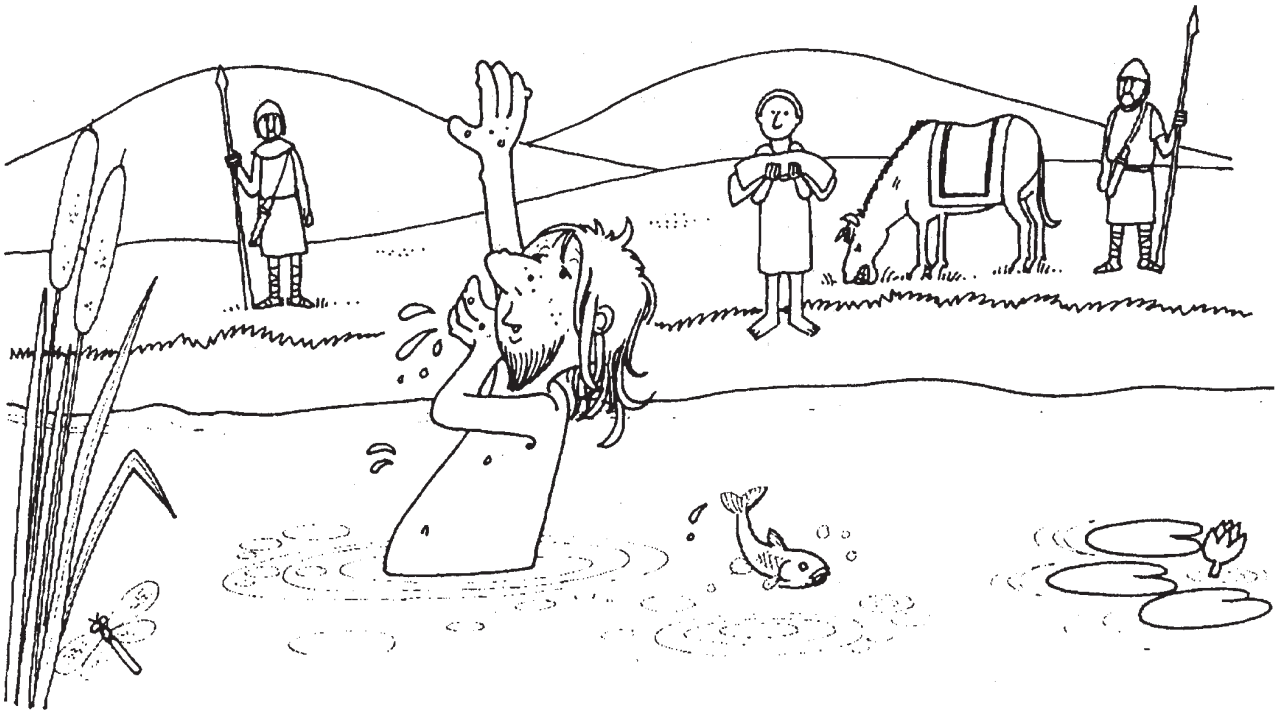
Naaman was a very important soldier. One day he became very sick with a bad skin disease. No doctors could make him better. In Naaman's house was a little girl who had come from the land where Elisha lived. She was sure that God could help Elisha to make Naaman better.



So Naaman set off to find Elisha. Elisha told him to go and wash seven times in the River Jordan. The river was muddy and cold and Naaman didn't want to wash there, but it was the only way he could be made better.

When he did as Elisha said, he looked at his skin and his disease was gone.
