After the Lord Jesus had gone back to Heaven, many people became believers in Him. These people, who loved the Lord Jesus, were part of God's church in Jerusalem. One of the helpers in that church was Stephen. He was a good man who served the Lord Jesus by helping other people. He was full of the Holy Spirit and often preached about Jesus.

Fill in the things Stephen did.

Some Jewish men did not like Stephen preaching about Jesus. They took Stephen to court where there were men who told lies about him. Even though Stephen was having a hard time, he was not afraid. No matter what these men said or did to him, the Lord Jesus would always be with him. The angry men noticed how peaceful Stephen was - the Bible tells us that his face looked like that of an angel!

Stephen spoke to all the people gathered in the court. He reminded them that they had killed Jesus. This made them furious. Stephen looked up to Heaven and saw a bright light. "I can see Jesus standing at the right hand of God", he exclaimed. He was thrilled to see into Heaven, but his enemies were more angry than ever!

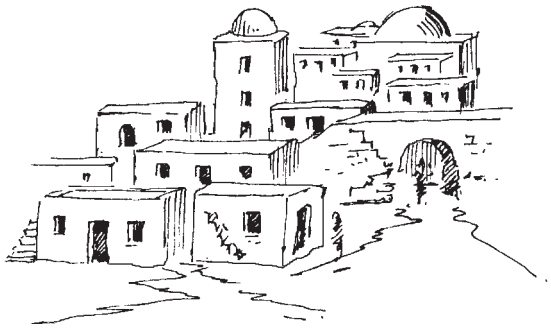
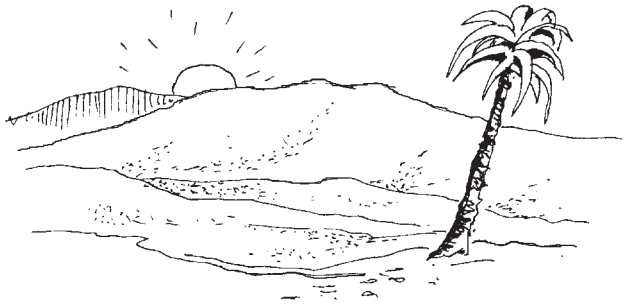
Philip also believed in the Lord Jesus and went around preaching. Usually he would preach in towns and cities where many people lived, but one day an angel told him to go along a road which passed through a desert.

Colour the picture which shows where Philip was sent.





3

Philip must have wondered why he was being sent there. Soon he saw a chariot in the distance. As it came closer, he saw an important man sitting in it. He was on his way home to a far country called Ethiopia, where he worked for the queen. The Holy Spirit told Philip to go close to the chariot. As he did this, he could hear the man reading from a part of the Bible!

Cross out the sentences that are wrong.

The man was riding on a donkey.

The man lived in Ethiopia.

The man worked for the king.

The man was reading.

The man was on his way home.

"Do you understand what you are reading?" asked Philip.

"How can I," the man replied, "unless I have someone to explain it to me?" At once, the Ethiopian man asked Philip to sit beside him in his chariot. The verses he was reading said that Someone would be killed like a lamb. How puzzled the Ethiopian was! Then Philip explained that this Person was the Lord Jesus who had allowed Himself to be put on the cross to bear the punishment for our sin.

Colour all the letters except for x, y and z to find the message Philip preached to the man.

Soon the Ethiopian understood that he needed to have his sin forgiven. Philip explained that he needed to trust in the Lord Jesus to be his Saviour. Without delay, he believed in the Lord Jesus!

As they travelled along, the Ethiopian said, "Look, there's some water. Why can't I be baptized?"

So the chariot stopped and Philip and the Ethiopian got down into the water where Philip baptized him. This showed that he was now a follower of the Lord Jesus and from now on, his life would be different.

After this, the Holy Spirit took Philip away to preach in other places. The Ethiopian continued on his journey, full of joy. He was so happy that he wanted to tell people in his country about Jesus too.

Put the sentences below in the correct order by numbering them 1 to 6.

Number 1 is done for you.

___ They both went down into the water.
___ Philip left him.
1 The Ethiopian trusted Jesus.
___ Philip baptized him.
___ He went home a very happy man.

We should be thankful that we have heard the good news about Jesus. We must also trust Him as our Lord and Saviour, then we will find the same happiness as the man from Ethiopia.
