Lesson No. 1 - Abraham listens to God

You can read this story in your Bible

Genesis 22: 8
Ask somebody to help you find this verse

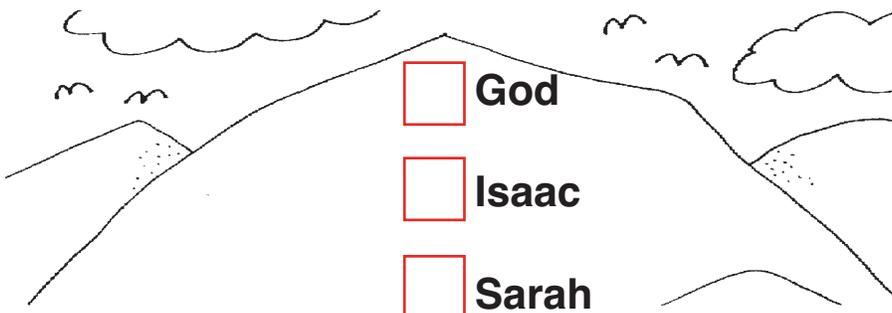

God kept His promise to Abraham and Sarah and gave them a son.
Write down the first letter of each object to discover his name.

They loved him very much. One day God told Abraham to take his son to a mountain, and there to kill him as a sacrifice to God. He wanted to see if Abraham loved Him or Isaac more. This made Abraham very sad, but he obeyed God's word because he loved God even more than he loved Isaac. He knew he could trust God for everything.

Put a check in the box beside the one Abraham loved most.

 God

 Isaac

 Sarah

Early the next morning, Abraham got everything ready for the journey. He cut the wood for the sacrifice and took two servants and a donkey with him. After three days, they came to the mountain that God had chosen.

Underline how many days the journey took.

One day Two days Three days

	3
--	---

Abraham told the two young men to wait for them, with the donkey. Isaac then carried the wood, while his father carried the knife and the fire.

Draw a straight line from each object to the person who carried it.

Isaac

As they started to climb, Isaac said, “Father, see here is the fire and wood, but where is the lamb for the sacrifice?” Abraham’s heart was very sad. “My son”, he said, “God will provide Himself a lamb”.

In the speech bubble, write what Abraham said to Isaac, by filling in the missing letters.

At last Abraham and Isaac came to the top of the mountain, where they built an altar with stones. Abraham piled the wood on the altar, tied up Isaac and laid him on the wood.

Starting at the letter 't', and going in the direction of the arrow, write down every other letter to find out what Abraham did on the mountain.

In the following sentences, find 4 words that will fill the boxes below.

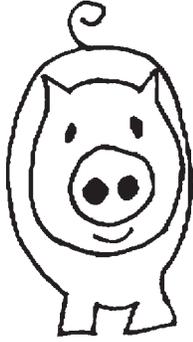

Then he raised his knife to kill his son. But as he did so, an angel called out from Heaven and told Abraham to stop and not to hurt his boy.

--	---

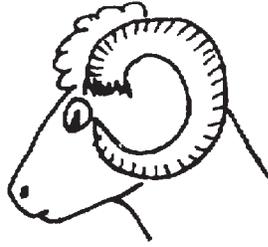

Abraham had shown God just how much he really did love Him, by obeying His word. Looking up, Abraham saw a ram caught by his horns in the bushes.

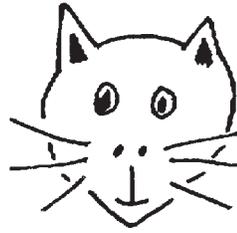

Draw a circle around the animal Abraham saw.

ram

cat

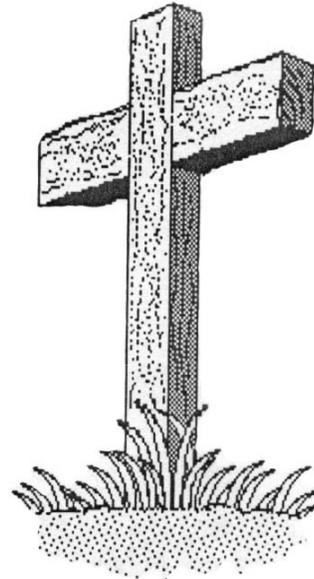

cow

--	---

The ram took Isaac's place on the altar. How happy Abraham must have been to have his son alive!

When God sent His Son into the world, the Lord Jesus was nailed to a cross. He was a willing sacrifice for us. There was no one else to take HIS place. He died for each of us.

Do you love Him?

Colour and learn the Key Verse, which tells us more about the Lord Jesus.

“The Son of God who loved me, and gave Himself for me.”

Ask somebody to help you
find this verse

Please put your name here

Abraham was now a very old man, but before he died, he wanted to be sure that Isaac was happily married. So he gave his chief servant instructions about finding a wife for his son. He told him to trust in God to guide him to the right woman.

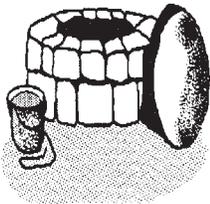

What did Abraham tell his servant to do?

T _ _ _ _ i _ G _ _ _ to guide him.

After travelling for many days, Abraham's servant stopped at a well near the city of Nahor. It was evening and all the young women were coming out to get water from the well.

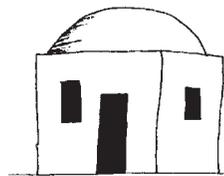

Underline the place at which Abraham's servant stopped.

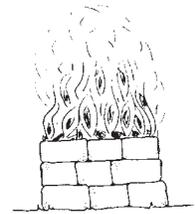

a well

a tree

a house

an altar

--	---

The servant then asked God to show him if one of these women was to be Isaac's wife. He would ask for a drink and if a woman gave him a drink and then offered water for his ten camels, he would know she was God's choice for Isaac.

Colour in the square which is beside the correct answer.

When the servant arrived in the city:-

- He found somewhere to stay.
- He asked God to help him.
- He sold the camels.

Soon he saw a very pretty woman coming towards the well. Her name was Rebekah. When he asked for a drink, she gladly gave him one and also enough water for all his camels. Then the servant knew that God had guided him to the right person.

Write out the woman's name, and colour the picture.

find this verse

Please put your name here

Rebekah ran home to tell her family what had happened. Her brother Laban ran to the well, brought the servant to their home, and made him welcome. But before the servant would even eat his supper, he told Rebekah's family why he had come.

Write the answers to the following questions on the Word Grid.

- Where did Rebekah leave Abraham's servant?
- Who ran to welcome him?
- Who told her family about the servant?

3	e		a

	6
--	---

The servant then told them about Isaac, and asked if Rebekah could return with him. Her father and Laban replied saying, "This is from the Lord; let her become Isaac's wife, as the Lord has guided."

Write in the speech bubble what her father and Laban said.

In the morning, Rebekah was asked if she would return with the servant and marry Isaac. Rebekah agreed to go.

Rebekah was Abraham's great niece, which meant Rebekah and Abraham were related. God had wonderfully answered the servant's prayer. He had guided him to the one He had chosen for Isaac to marry.

Put YES by the right sentence.

Rebekah's father had planned everything. _____

God had chosen Rebekah for Isaac. _____

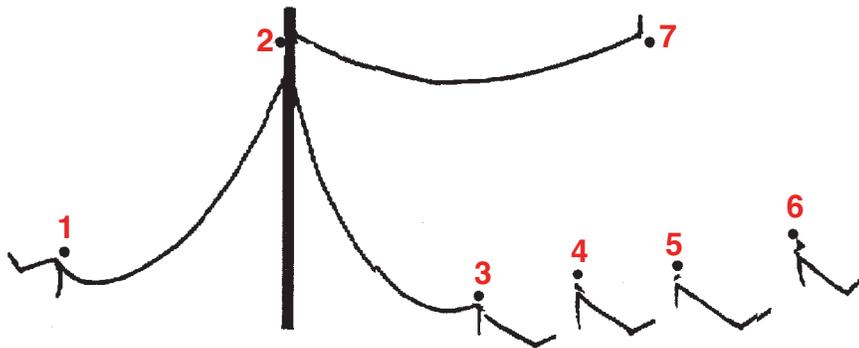

The servant made Rebekah go with him. _____

Back at Abraham's home, Isaac was waiting and wondering what was happening. One evening, while out for a walk, he saw the camels coming. Soon he welcomed Rebekah to her new home and took her into his mother's tent.

Join the dots to reveal Rebekah's new home, then colour it in.

Isaac loved Rebekah very much and she became his wife. They were very happy together because she was God's choice for him.

We, too, will find joy and happiness if we make the Lord Jesus our choice and trust Him as our Saviour, Friend and Guide.

Fill in the missing words.

One evening I _ _ _ _ saw the camels coming. Isaac brought R _ _ _ _ _ into his mother's tent.

She became his w _ _ _ .
