Another change was the food they had to eat. Some of it came from the heathen temple where it had been offered up to false gods. The four young Hebrews realized this was wrong and decided not to eat any of it. The king's officials were afraid that they might not look as well as those who ate the king's food.

So it was agreed that for ten days Daniel and his friends would be tested by being given vegetables to eat and water to drink, instead of the king's food.

From the following words, choose answers to the questions.

false gods

Daniel

ten days

vegetables

To what had the king's food been offered? _____

Who decided not to eat this food? _____

What food did he eat instead? _____

For how many days did the 'plain food tests' last? _____

When the time was up, Daniel and his three friends looked much better than the rest, and so they didn't have to eat the king's food.

God greatly blessed the young Hebrews and gave them much wisdom. He also helped Daniel to explain dreams. At the end of their training, the king found them to be ten times wiser than anyone else in his kingdom!

God had rewarded them for being faithful to Him. It is so important that we say "Yes" to God's way and "No" to all that is wrong.

Who had made Daniel wise? Check the correct answer.

One day King Nebuchadnezzar made a golden idol. It was ninety feet high and nine feet wide! He then ordered all his important princes and rulers, including Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, to come to a special ceremony.

Everyone gathered in front of the great idol, along with the royal orchestra. Then they were told that as soon as the music began, they must bow down and worship the idol. If they did not, they would be thrown into a fiery furnace!

Circle what the image was made of.

When the people heard the sound of the music, they all worshipped the idol by bowing down to it. That is, all except Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, who stood up straight! They knew it was wrong to worship false gods and they didn't want to break God's commandments.

Write the names of the three Hebrews who would not bow down and worship the idol.

When the king heard what had happened he was very angry and ordered the young Hebrews to be brought to him. He then asked if it was true, that they had disobeyed his orders.

He told them they must bow down and worship the idol or they would be thrown into the fiery furnace!

The three men replied saying:

“If we are thrown into the furnace

our God whom we serve is able to save us.”

Colour the Key Verse.

The king ordered that the furnace be heated seven times hotter than usual and that the three men be thrown in!

Suddenly the king jumped up in surprise. He saw not three, but four men walking around in the fire, completely unhurt! God was protecting His servants! When they came out of the fire they did not even smell of smoke!

The king then praised God, saying that God had rescued them because they had trusted in Him. He ordered that no one was to say anything against their God. He then promoted Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego to high positions in his kingdom.

Once again, God had helped those who had trusted Him. He will do the same for you today!

Daniel was so good at his job that the king planned to put him in charge of everything! This made the other governors and princes jealous.

They decided they would try and find something wrong with his work so that the king would change his mind. They had one problem. Daniel was so honest and careful in everything he did, they could not find anything wrong!

The king planned to put Daniel in charge of everything.

Daniel was jealous of the princes.

Daniel was honest and careful in his work.

Daniel knew that he was pleasing God by doing his best at work and always being truthful. Whether at school, or home, let us remember that if we love the Lord, like Daniel, we should try to please Him.

Daniel's enemies knew how he often talked to God in prayer. So they decided to set a trap by suggesting to King Darius that a new law be made. For 30 days, everyone must come to the king with their requests and not ask any other person or God. Without thinking, the king agreed.

Colour the number of days the new law would last.

15 30 50

Daniel knew this was a trap, but he trusted in God to protect him.

Praying to the Lord was very important in his life and nothing would stop him! So as usual, Daniel went into his room and knelt down in front of the open windows that faced towards Jerusalem.

There, three times a day, he talked to God.

Complete the sentence.

Daniel k _ _ _ _ _ down and p _ _ _ _ _ to God

Are you trusting in the Lord? Do you have a time when you pray to Him each day?

As Daniel prayed, he was seen by his enemies who quickly went and told the king. When he heard this, the king was very upset and did his best to find some way to rescue Daniel. But it was no good, for the law of the land could never be changed. Daniel would have to be thrown into the den of lions.
