You can read this story in your Bible

1 Kings 17: 1-7

Key Verse

1 Kings 17: 5
Ask somebody to help you find this verse

In the days of Elijah, the people of Israel had a very wicked king. His name was Ahab. Indeed, he was the most wicked king the Israelites had ever had! His wife, Jezebel, was just as bad as he was! God was very displeased with all the evil things that were happening.

1. Write the king's name. A _ _ _

2. Write the queen's name. J _ _ _ _ _ _

God chose Elijah to be His prophet. This means that God told him what to say to the wicked king. God also told Elijah about things which were going to happen in the future.

One day, God sent Elijah to Ahab. It took a lot of courage to tell the king that God was going to punish both him and his country for their wicked ways.

But Elijah obeyed God, and told the king what God had said. There would not be any rain or dew in the whole country for a very long time.

Lesson No. 2 - Elijah trusts God

You can read this story in your Bible

1 Kings 17: 8-24

Key Verse

Kings 17: 14
Ask somebody to help you find this verse

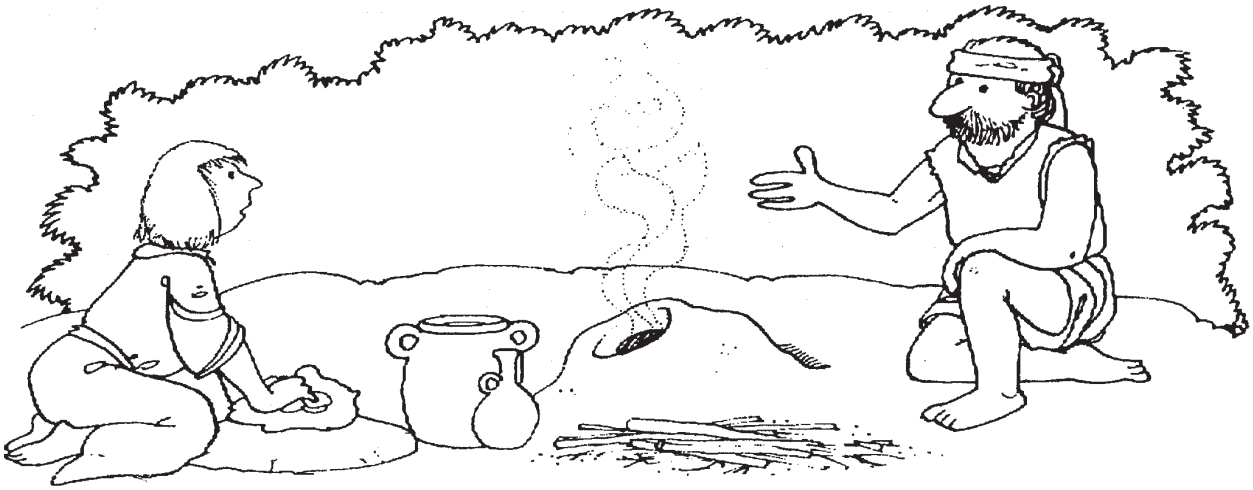
When the brook dried up, God sent Elijah away to a city called Zarephath. God had told a widow who lived there to look after him.



When he arrived, Elijah asked the woman to give him a drink of water and some bread to eat.

"I have no bread," she said. "I've only a handful of flour left, and I'm going to bake my last loaf of bread. When we've eaten it, my son and I will die of hunger."

How sad! All over the country, crops had failed because there was no rain, and people were facing death by starvation.

Unscramble the words in these sentences:-

1. A woman whose husband is dead is called a o d w w i _ _ _ _ _ .
2. Elijah asked the widow for d a e r b _ _ _ _ _ and e r a w t _ _ _ _ _ .
3. She had only a f l u n h d a _ _ _ _ _ _ _ of flour left.

"Listen to me," said Elijah. "Do as you have said, but make me a loaf first."

Then he added this: "God promises that your flour and your oil won't be used up until He sends the rain again."

What was she to do? She could either be selfish and keep all for herself, or else she could share it with the prophet and trust God to provide for her until the famine was over.

She was a wise and trusting woman. The Bible tells us that

"She went and did

as Elijah said."

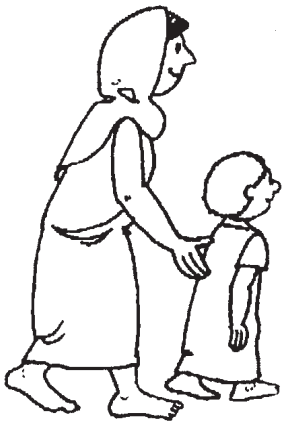
Colour the words. 4

Today, God wants each of us to believe what He says! It's when we 'believe' on the Lord Jesus that we 'receive' eternal life. (Read John 3: 16.)

God kept His promise to the widow. She looked after Elijah for a long time, and there was always enough flour and oil to make bread! As time went by, she must have often been amazed at how great and powerful God is!

Put TRUE or FALSE after each of these:-

1. The widow never had enough flour during the famine. _____
2. She discovered how powerful God is. _____ 4



One day she learned something more about God's power. Her little boy became very sick and died. Elijah carried his body up to his room, and laid him on his bed. He stretched himself out on the boy three times, and prayed to God.

"O Lord, my God," he said, "restore this child to life."

God answered Elijah's prayer. The boy started breathing again. God had brought him back to life! What a powerful God!

Use these words to answer the questions:-

Elijah The boy The widow God

1. Who became sick and died? _____
2. Who prayed to God? _____

Lesson No. 3 - Elijah serves God

You can read this story in your Bible

1 Kings 18: 1-2 & 16-46

Key Verse

1 Kings 18: 39
Ask somebody to help you find this verse

Please put your name here

For more than three years there was no rain. No crops grew, and even the grass withered. Animals were dying.

Then one day, God told Elijah to go back to King Ahab. The king at once accused Elijah of being the cause of all the trouble.

"I am not the cause," answered Elijah. "You, King Ahab, have brought all this trouble upon your country. You have broken God's laws, and have worshipped the heathen god, Baal, who is really no god at all!"

Write the answers to these questions:-

1. For how long was there no rain? _____ y e a r s

2. Who did King Ahab say was the cause of the trouble? E __ __ __ __ __

3. Who had broken God's laws? A __ __ __

Elijah decided that the time had come to show that the Lord is the one true God. He told the king to come with the prophets of Baal to Mount Carmel. There they would build two altars, one for Baal and the other for the Lord. On each altar they would place a dead bullock for a sacrifice.

The prophets of Baal would then pray to their god, and Elijah would pray to the Lord. If fire came down from Heaven and burned up Baal's sacrifice, then they would know that Baal was the true God; if, on the other hand, fire burned up the Lord's sacrifice, that would prove that the Lord is God.

Circle the CORRECT word in the brackets:-

1. They built (three two four) altars on Mount (Carmel Sinai Moriah).
2. On each altar they placed a (goat lamb bullock).
3. They waited to see if Baal or the Lord would answer by (fire rain earthquake).

When Baal's prophets were ready, they called upon their god for hours, but there was no answer! They shouted even louder, and worked themselves into a state of great excitement, but still there was no fire!

Then it was Elijah's turn. When the Lord's altar was ready he ordered that twelve barrels of water be poured over it. Then he quietly prayed to the Lord, and the fire of the Lord came down, burned up everything and even licked up the water lying around it!

Write these words next to the correct altar.

loud shouting water no fire fire

When the people saw what had happened, they bowed down and said,

"The Lord, He is God."

Colour the words from the Key Verse.

It was a great victory for God and Elijah. Many people turned back to the true God, and gave up the worship of false gods.

The day ended with a great rain storm. The years of drought and famine were over!

There are many 'false gods' whom people serve today. Are you willing to give the true God first place in your life? If you are, then receive His Son, the Lord Jesus, as your personal Lord and Saviour!

God knew exactly what His tired prophet needed - plenty of refreshing sleep and good food! So after a long sleep under the tree, an angel touched him. On opening his eyes, Elijah saw some freshly baked bread and a jar of water! He ate and drank, and then slept again.

The angel woke him up the second time, and once more he enjoyed what God had provided for him. After such good rest and food, he was able to continue his journey.

At the end of that journey, Elijah rested in a cave. There he had a wonderful meeting with God. First there came a great, strong wind, then an earthquake, then fire, but God was not in any of these. Last of all, there was "a still small voice". It was God speaking to His prophet!

"What are you doing here, Elijah?" God asked.

"Your people have turned away from You, they have worshipped false gods, they have killed Your prophets and now my life is in danger," answered Elijah.

That day, God gave Elijah several new tasks to do for Him. One of the jobs was to find a young man called Elisha and to anoint him to be a prophet in his place.
