Lesson No. 1 The Life of Peter - An example of Love

John 13: 1-17

John 13: 15

Becky was cross! She did not want to set the table. It was Ben's turn but he was in bed with the measles. She wasn't going to do his job!

In the Bible Reading the disciples didn't want to do a slave's job!

People in Jesus' day usually had to walk if they wanted to go anywhere. It was a hot and dry country, and the roads were very dirty and dusty. Their feet would get dirty because they wore sandals. When they arrived, the owner of the house would make sure that one of his slaves washed their feet before they had their meal. On this particular occasion the Lord Jesus did the slave's job.

Match up each broken sentence by putting its number in the correct empty box.

Lesson No. 2 The Life of Peter - Peter denies his Lord

& 54-62*

Luke 22: 31 & 32

Ben had lots of friends at school. One Friday, his class was talking about what they were going to do on Sunday.

“I’m going to my Grandma’s,” said one.

“I’m going to the beach,” said another. “What are you doing, Ben?”

“I’ll be going to church,” he said. His friends were amazed and asked if he went every week.

“Well, no,” he replied, knowing that this wasn’t true, but he was frightened of being laughed at, so he didn’t tell the truth. Peter felt just like that in the Bible Reading.

After the Lord Jesus had eaten supper with His disciples, He took them to the Mount of Olives. He warned Peter that soon he would say that he did not know Him.
