Lesson No. 1 Abraham - His Call

Genesis 11: 27-32
12: 1-9

Acts 7: 2-4

Suggested Further Reading

Joshua 24: 2 & 3 Hebrews 11: 8-10

Although Abraham lived thousands of years ago, his trust in God has been an example to Christians for many centuries. When we first read about him in the Bible, he is known as Abram.

Name the following members of Abram's family.

1. His father 2. His wife 3. His nephew

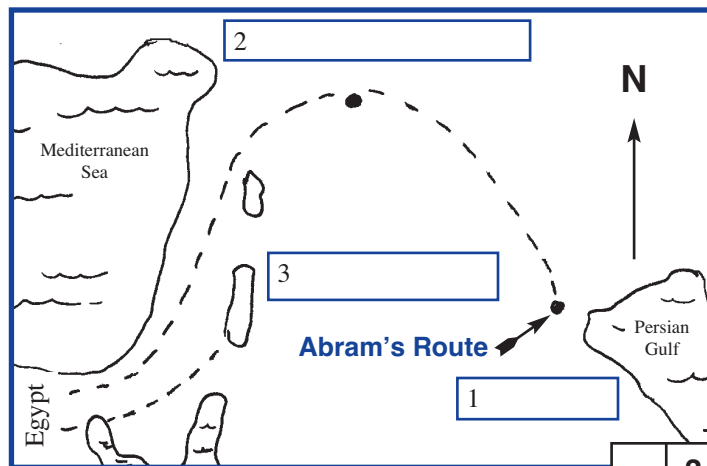

3

Abram and his family lived in Mesopotamia.

On the map mark:-

1. The city they left.
2. The town at which they arrived.
3. The country to which they were travelling.

In those days, travel was not easy. Such a journey of several hundred miles would have been a major undertaking. It would have involved the movement of many people, servants, herdsmen and cattle. No one would set out on such a journey unless he was convinced it was the right thing to do!

Who appeared to Abram? (See Key Verses.)

1

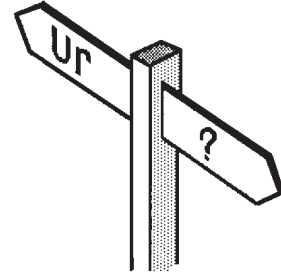

What did He say to him? (Genesis 12: 1)

1

Why did he go? (See Hebrews 11: 8.)

1

It appears that Abram was not totally obedient. Instead of leaving his father’s household, he took most of them with him, and instead of going straight to the land that God had told him, he stopped at Haran until his father died. God does not want us to be partially obedient. ‘What He says, we must do! Where He sends, we must go!’ Christians who do not obey God’s Word (the Bible) will never receive the blessing God wants to give them.

Abram was also encouraged to obey God’s commands by the promises God made to him. Notice how often God says to him, “I will”.

What were five things God said He would do?

Abram did not know the way to go (see Hebrews 11: 8), but he trusted God to guide him. We don’t know all the details of his long journey, but we do know that Abram and his family eventually arrived in Canaan.

Make a list of all who went with Abram to Canaan.

	3
--	---

Abram may have been disappointed when he got to Canaan. It was already inhabited, but God gave him a great promise which must have encouraged him. (See verse 7.)

How did Abram respond to this new promise from God?

	2

This whole incident in Abram’s life resulted from him meeting God and God calling him.

From the Key Verses, write out the one in which God speaks to Abram.

	1

When God calls us, as He did Abram, we need to trust Him, follow Him and obey Him. In fact, we should hand over our lives to Him.

We are making choices all the time - subjects to study at school, a career to aim for, which sport to play and which friends to have. We also make choices about God - whether to follow the Lord or go our own way. In this study we learn how to make the right choice in our lives.

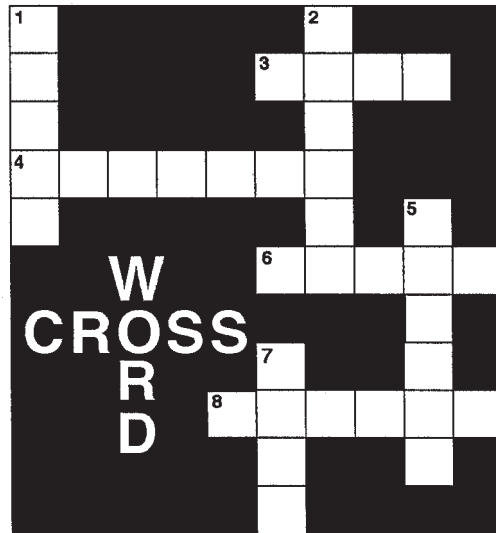

Complete the Crossword to discover the background to this study.

Explain IN YOUR OWN WORDS why Abram and Lot could not live together.

	2
--	---

Abram gave his nephew Lot the opportunity to make the first choice.

Write out Abram's suggestion to Lot.

	1
--	---

Underline the correct words which describe the area chosen by Lot.

Well watered / west / Plain of Jordan / desert / east / Valley of Nile / near Sodom and Gomorrah / near Jericho

	2

Lot made three mistakes when he made his choice:-

1. He didn't ask God which way he should go.
2. He didn't give his uncle Abram the first choice, though that would have been polite, in view of the fact that Abram was older than he was, and had done so much for him.
3. He chose to go and live near a city where the people were very wicked.

We must always ask God what He wants us to do when we have an important choice to make. We must never make a choice which brings us into a situation where we could be tempted to sin.

Abram stayed in Canaan.

After Lot left, God made another promise to Abram about the land. Write it out.

	1
--	---

Because Abram had been obedient, God gave him more promises about his descendants.

Answer TRUE or FALSE to the following:-

Abram's land was to the north and to the south. _____

Abram's family would be like the trees in the wood. _____

Abram could go wherever he wanted in the land. _____

God would give Abram all this land. _____

	4
--	---

Abram was pleased with God's promises. What did he do to thank Him?

	1
--	---

While Abram was receiving God's blessing, Lot was caught in a battle. (Genesis 14: 1 & 2)

Draw lines to link the correct numbers.

5		4
4	kings fought against	7 kings.
3		5

	1
--	---

It seems that Lot had now moved into the wicked city of Sodom.

Write a sentence to explain what had happened to him in the battle. (Genesis 14: 12)

	1
--	---

How many men did Abram take? When did they attack?

	2

So Abram rescued Lot and his goods. Lot's choice had not been right, and he had gone the wrong way. It was only his uncle's courage which gave him back his freedom.

How easy it is to make the wrong choices at school, at work, with friends or even at home. Are you prepared to make the choice which Joshua made?

Find the Key Verse and write out the last sentence.

James 2: 20-24

Abraham now faces the greatest test of his life. He had waited so long for Isaac to be born, and now his son becomes the centre of God's test.

Fill in the missing words in the speech bubble to discover what God wanted him to do.

	3

Child sacrifices were common among the heathen nations, who did not know the true God. Abraham must have found it very difficult to understand why God wanted him to do this. If he sacrificed Isaac, how could God's promises ever come true?

Put the following events in the correct order by numbering them 1 to 5.

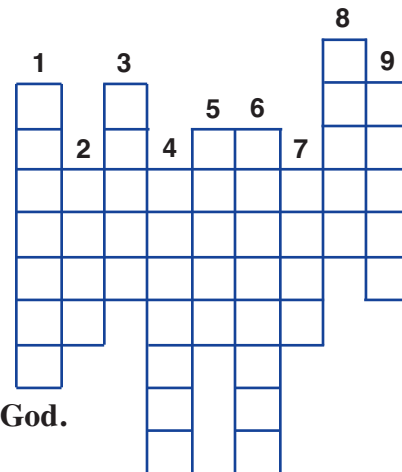

- He set out for the place God had told him about.
- On the third day he saw the place in the distance.
- Abraham saddled his donkey.
- He cut enough wood for the burnt offering.
- He took with him two servants and Isaac.

	5

Complete the Word Grid to discover what happened next.

1. Abraham said that he and Isaac were going to _____ .
2. Isaac asked where the _____ was.
3. Abraham and Isaac came to the _____ which God had told him.
4. Abraham said that God would _____ a lamb.
5. Abraham carried a _____ .
6. Abraham was going to make a burnt _____ .
7. Abraham also carried the _____ .
8. Abraham put _____ on the altar.
9. As Abraham was about to kill his son an _____ spoke to him.

Look along the Word Grid and write down what Abraham did for God.

He made a _____ .

	5
--	---

What did the angel of the Lord say to Abraham after calling him by his name?

	1
--	---

Abraham had been prepared to give God everything. His love for God was such that he would give Him even his own son.

What did Abraham offer instead of Isaac?

	1
--	---

What did Abraham believe? (Hebrews 11: 19)

	2
--	---

What did he call the place?

	1

When the angel of the Lord spoke to Abraham a second time, he made it clear that Abraham was now to receive a great blessing, because he had obeyed God's command.

We see in this event in Abraham's life, a picture of all that happened when God gave His Son, the Lord Jesus, to die on the cross. No one could take HIS place. Like the ram that died in Isaac's place, the Lord Jesus died on the cross as a willing sacrifice for us. He was God's provision for our sins.

Write out Romans 8: 32 which explains this.
