Today, people still tell lies about other people because they want to harm them.

Jesus came from Galilee, so Pilate sent Him to Herod who was the ruler of that area. Like Pilate, Herod knew that Jesus was innocent of the crimes of which He was accused. King Herod wanted Jesus to perform a miracle to entertain him, but Jesus wouldn't even speak to him!

In what ways did Herod and his men treat Jesus?

2

At that time, Pilate had another prisoner.

What was his name?

1

For what crimes was he in prison?

The Romans had conquered the Jewish nation and were hated by many Jews. Probably this man had killed a Roman and many of the Jewish people would have been glad that he had done this.

Although both Herod and Pilate knew that Jesus was innocent, Pilate was afraid to release Him. Instead he asked the people to choose whether he should release Jesus or Barabbas.

When the people shouted for Barabbas, what were they choosing?

Jesus was not the only person to be crucified. Who were put to death with Him?

	1
--	---

The people that day saw Barabbas, a guilty man, go free. Jesus, an innocent Man, was crucified. Jesus was not only innocent of the crimes of which His enemies accused Him, but also He was the only Person who had never sinned against God. On the cross He was dying for His enemies, and also for each one of us, in order that we may receive eternal life.

Write out the Key Verse and CIRCLE the word which describes both Barabbas and us.

CROSSWORD

Across

1. Pilate knew that Jesus was this.
3. Barabbas was accused of this crime.
4. Jesus died so that we might have this eternally.
5. While we were _____ Christ died for us. (See Key Verse.)

2. Jesus said that we should love these people. (See Matthew 5: 44.)

	5
--	---

We are not told how Barabbas felt when he saw the Lord Jesus led out to die instead of him or whether he changed his way of life. However, we know that the Lord Jesus died for our sins. Therefore, we need to turn away from our sins and commit our lives to His control.

Have you ever committed your life to Him? If you have, write and tell us!

The Lord Jesus - Buried and Risen

 Read

 Luke 23: 44-56
24: 1-12

Suggested Further Reading

Matthew 27: 57-61

Mark 16: 1-7

John 19: 38-42

 Key Verse

2 Timothy 2: 8

Please put your name here

Following the death of the Lord Jesus, we are introduced to a man whom we had not heard about previously. John 19: 38 tells us that he was a secret follower of Jesus.

Who was he?

1

Why was he a secret follower? (See John 19: 38.)

1

Answer TRUE or FALSE to these statements to discover more about him:-

He lived in Antioch.

He was a good and just man.

He was waiting for the Kingdom of God.

He was a carpenter.

He asked Herod for the body.

He wrapped the body in linen.

3

Near the place where the Lord Jesus was crucified, Joseph had an unused tomb (sepulchre). This tomb was a cave, inside which Joseph placed the body of the Lord Jesus.

Who watched what Joseph did and then prepared perfume and spices?

1

This was the only way left by which the friends of Jesus could show their love for Him.

How did the women continue to show that same love early on the first day of the week?

1

These women were worried because they didn't know how they could roll away the stone which covered the entrance to the tomb.

What were their feelings when they discovered that His body was not in the tomb?

1

How did they react when they saw the two men?

1

The two men, who were really angels, had a wonderful message for the women.

Why were they wrong to look for Jesus in the tomb?

1

What three things had Jesus earlier told His followers would happen to Him?

1.

2.

3.

3

On learning that the Lord Jesus was risen from the dead, to whom did the women go?

1

The women didn't keep the good news to themselves. We, too, should tell the good news about the Lord Jesus to our friends. The disciples, however, did not share the joy of the women.

Why not?

1

Many people today don't believe the good news that the Lord Jesus died and rose again.

What did Peter do?

1

What was his reaction as he left the tomb?

1

After the death of Jesus, Joseph and the women did what they could to show their love for Him. The women were filled with joy when they heard and believed the good news that the angels told them. We, also, will be filled with joy if we believe that the Lord Jesus has died for us and risen again.

Write out the Key Verse and remember it is true!

In the last study, we discovered that when the women heard the message of the angels, they believed the Lord Jesus was alive. Cleopas and his companion actually met with the risen Christ, but at first they didn't even recognize Him.

From verse 17, what can we tell about how these two people were feeling?

1

Write a sentence to express what Cleopas said in reply to Jesus' question in verse 17.

As they spoke to this 'Stranger' about the events at Jerusalem, they told Him how they had hoped that Jesus of Nazareth would rescue their country from their enemies.

Cleopas and his companion wanted the 'Stranger' to be their guest.

When He was in their home, what did He do that caused Cleopas and his companion to recognize Him?

	1
--	---

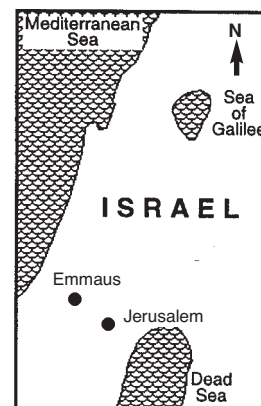

It would usually have been the host, the head of the family, who broke the bread. When the Lord Jesus comes into someone's life He must always come in as the Person who is in control.

Now that they knew who the 'Stranger' really was, their hearts were filled with joy.

What did they immediately do to share their joy with others?

	1
--	---

These two people walked seven miles after dark in order to share the good news of Jesus' resurrection with their friends. Follow their example and share what you know about the Lord Jesus with your friends.
